

Negotiated For ASME Members And Their Families

$50,000 TO $500,000 MEMBER COVERAGE!

Accidents. Television and newspapers report them every day. But what if one happened to you? Would your family have the financial resources to survive the crisis? If you travel a great deal in your work ... or if you are subject to possible injury on the job ... you may need ASME Group Accidental Death & Dismemberment Insurance. It helps protect you and your insured family members by providing accident protection that covers you year round ... anywhere in the world.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

As a member of ASME under age 70, you are eligible to apply for coverage for yourself, your lawful spouse under age 70, and unmarried dependent children under age 19 (26 if a full-time student). To become insured, a completed Form must be submitted and the required premium contribution must be paid when billed.

This coverage is available to residents of the United States (except FL, NC, OR, SD, VT, WA and territories) and Puerto Rico. This coverage is not available to residents of Canada.

WHAT YOU CAN CHOOSE

You may select a Principal Sum ranging from $50,000 to $500,000 (in units of $50,000) for yourself – at member-only group rates. You have a choice of whom you wish to insure – Member Only Coverage or Family Coverage. Member Only Coverage pays benefits for covered accidental death or injury for you alone. Family Coverage is designed to cover all of your eligible dependents for benefit amounts based on a percentage of your Principal Sum.

An individual may not be insured under one or more AD&D Group Policies underwritten by New York Life for a total amount of AD&D coverage that exceeds current over-insurance standards.

When you reach age 70, coverage converts to Common Carrier Travel Accident Insurance and the total coverage amount you have in force under this Policy may not exceed $100,000. Common Carrier coverage protects against accidents that occur while riding on a public conveyance – airplane, bus, train, or taxi.

HOW IT WORKS

Schedule of Benefits

Except as stated in the description of the Disappearance benefit below, for an injury directly and independently caused by an accident while coverage is in force for you, your spouse or your child, the benefits specified below will be paid if such resulting loss(es) occur within 365 days of that accident.

Benefits are payable for the following losses:

FULL PRINCIPAL SUM for loss of: life; or two limbs; or movement of both upper and lower limbs (quadriplegia); or sight of both eyes; or both speech and hearing; or one limb and sight of one eye.

THREE-QUARTERS OF PRINCIPAL SUM for loss of: movement of both lower limbs (paraplegia).

ONE-HALF OF PRINCIPAL SUM for loss of: one limb; or movement of both upper and lower limbs on one side of the body (hemiplegia); or sight of one eye; or speech; or hearing.

ONE-QUARTER OF PRINCIPAL SUM for loss of the thumb and index finger of either hand.

Loss means: with reference to limbs, actual severance through or above the wrist or ankle joints; with reference to thumb and index finger, actual severance through or above metacarpophalangeal joints; with reference to sight, speech or hearing, entire and irrevocable loss thereof; and with reference to movement, complete and irreversible paralysis of such limbs.

Disappearance – If an insured is riding in a conveyance and such conveyance either disappears or sinks as a result of an accident and the insured's body is not found within one year after that accident, the insured will be presumed dead, as a result of accidental injury, and the benefit in effect will be payable.

The total benefit payable for all losses due to a single accident will not be more than the Principal Sum. Only one of the sums, the largest, will be paid for all injuries to the same limb resulting from one accident.

If, at the time of your death, there are no surviving beneficiaries, benefits will be paid to the executor or administrator of your estate, or at the option of New York Life, to the surviving relatives in the following order of survival: spouse; children equally; parents equally; or brothers and sisters equally. The member is the beneficiary for spouse's and children's coverage. If you wish to designate a different beneficiary, simply contact the Administrator at 1-800-289-ASME(2763) for a Beneficiary Form.

WHEN COVERAGE ENDS

Insurance will terminate on the occurrence of the earliest of these conditions: if premium contributions are not paid when due; if the Group Policy is terminated or modified by the Policyholder or New York Life Insurance Company to end insurance for the group of insureds to which the insured belongs; for any insured person, if the Principal Sum for that insured has been paid; for dependent spouse and/or child coverage, if member coverage ends, except that such dependent coverage may be continued if the member's Principal Sum has been paid; for a dependent spouse, when he/she is no longer a lawful married spouse; for a dependent child, upon reaching age 19 (26 if a full-time student). A member's surviving spouse and children may continue coverage if it was in force at the time of the member's death, as described in the Certificate of Insurance.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Insurance for you and your eligible dependents will become effective on the date specified by New York Life Insurance Company provided the initial contribution is paid when due and you and your approved dependents are actively performing the normal activities of a person in good health of like age [For NC residents: a person of like age] on that date. Dependent insurance will not take effect unless your insurance is in effect on a premium paying basis, and any person who is not performing his/her normal activities as required will not become insured until the date he/she is performing such activities, provided such date is within three months of the date insurance would have been effective and the person is still eligible. (Payment of a premium contribution for insurance does not mean there is any coverage in force before the effective date as specified by New York Life Insurance Company.)

CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE

When you become insured you will be sent a Certificate of Insurance summarizing your coverage. This brochure contains only a brief description of some of the policy's principal provisions and features. The complete terms and conditions are set forth in the group policy issued by New York Life Insurance Company to the Trustee of the Preferred Group Trust.

30-DAY FREE LOOK

When you receive your Certificate of Insurance, read it carefully. If you're not completely satisfied with the terms of your new insurance policy, simply return your Certificate, without claim, within 30 days and your premium will be promptly refunded, and your insurance will then be invalidated.
